Cab driver robbed; 3 held

Three men were being held in the Madison County jail in Edwardsville today pending the approval of charges from the robbery of a taxicab driver near Route 111 and Sand Prairie Lane about 4:20 p.m. Friday.

Dale Reveal, 30, Alton, a driver from Amesbury, Mass., to Alton, was said he called to a service station in Alton for three men wanting to go to Washington Park.

When they got to near Sand Prairie Lane, Route 111, one asked him to stop the taxi, saying he was going to be ill. He complied and when he started to drive again, another man put his hand around Reveal's neck and started to choke him.

Reveal stopped the cab again and the man took about $35 to from him and ordered him out of the car.

About one-half hour later, Edwardsville police found the abandoned taxicab on a church lot and three men who fled east on foot were arrested nearby a short time later.

The three included a 28-year-old Granite City man, and the others were from Wood River and Greenville.

GC man indicted in theft of antiques

William J. Pelitte, 34, Granite City, and four other persons were named Thursday in a Federal indictment charging conspiracy to defraud the U.S. Mint and coin dealer, Robert W. Polen in interstate commerce.

An FBI spokesman said the charges are in relation to theft of more than $800,000 worth of art objects, including Tiffany lamp shades and glassware valued at $170,000, stolen in the burglary of a Dunn, Wis., residence, and about $100,000 worth of slate statues and other antiques taken from a St. Louis residence in December 1974.

Federal officials said the federal ring was based in the St. Louis area and operated on a national scale.

The five could face up to 10 years in prison and $10,000 fine on each of five counts. One count calls for five years in prison and a $10,000 fine.

Seek enrollees for special education here

Efforts are underway by the Special Education Region serving the Quad-City area to locate children who require special education but are not enrolled in a public school program.

The main focus of the effort is to identify 3-year-old children who have physical handicaps to enroll in the special education program, but also sought are others, ages 3 to 21, who may need special education but are not enrolled in a program.

The region includes the Granite City, Madison and Venice public school districts. Persons knowing of someone who should be registered in the special education program are requested to contact the Region I Special Education office at 2060 Delmar Ave., or call 876-4900.

A survey of the region is hard for some to do successfully because their bodies are pre-set to certain weight levels.

Youth beaten in disturbance

Danny Poe, 18, of 2232 Logan Ave., was injured seriously when he was beaten during a disturbance at the Curve Inn on Missouri Avenue at 2:35 a.m. Sunday.

Poe said he was in the tavern when a skinny man about 30 to 35 years-old, objected to his long hair and started beating him. The fight continued onto the parking lot where Poe said another man started kicking him.

Witnesses said one man objected to Poe's attempting to stop the beating and fired a gun in the air, ordering everyone to get away and let them fight.

The man then got rid of the gun and went back inside the tavern.

Madison County sheriff's deputies arrived and found Poe in the rear seat of a station wagon with multiple injuries. Poe was taken by Granite City ambulance to St. Elizabeth Hospital where he was admitted to surgery.

Poe suffered a possible broken plate last week in Canton, Ohio nose, a cut to his left eyelid and a gash to his right knee, right Ohio, a former Granite City

Deputies said they were unable to make an arrest because there were not witnesses who would cooperate. Most said they knew nothing about a disturbance, deputies noted.

Deputies left the tavern, but two were called back at 3 a.m. Sunday on the report of another disturbance at the Curve Inn.

The bartenders said customers were told to leave at closing time, but one woman refused,

He also was the son-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. Dan Earmhart of Granite City.

He was arrested after crashing his car into a police car containing 115 grams of marijuana.

The temperature hovered at near the freezing point, recorded variably at approximately two below to one degree above, and strong winds brought a wind chill index of as low as 41 below zero. Light snow fell Sunday evening but created no driving conditions.

One attendant, Randy Biggs, said a youth entered the station about 9:30 p.m. Sunday and stood around about 10 to 15 minutes, according to Biggs, telling him he could not afford the slatting and the youth left, saying he would be back later "and buy a lot of stuff."

About 10:05 p.m., Biggs went into the store to deposit money in his vault and was counting the money when he saw the same youth in the doorway, holding a knife.

The robber said, "Give me all you got." It was reported Biggs said he gave the money to the robber, who put the bills in his trouser pockets.

Biggs then took the money changer machine off his belt, placed it on a shelf and the robber began searching Biggs' pockets for more money, police sources were told.

Biggs, who was wearing thick gloves, then grabbed the knife blade and punched the robber's face with a fist, knocking the robber backwards, he told police.

Biggs threw the knife on the floor and scuttled with the robber, who was trying to get out the door, he said. The scuffle continued until the door and Biggs' wallet were broken, the attendant to help him. The other attendant and an unidentified customer aided in subduing the robber and took him inside the station, he was told.

The robber was ordered to remove the money from his pocket and complied, throwing it on the floor, officers were told. Police then called and found the attendants holding the alleged robber at bay.

Biggs gave police a butcher knife with a seven-inch blade he said he found in the store.

Police lodged the man in jail pending a meeting today at the Madison County's warrant office where police will seek a warrant charging armed robbery against the youth.

Vocational employers, educators elect; training directory planned

Dr. Clyde Washburn, dean of career programs at Belleville Area Community College, has been named president of the Consortium of Vocational Educators and Employers at that organization's annual meeting, held at SUIE.

The consortium (COVE) is made up of members in industry and education from seven Southern Illinois counties.

Other new officers of the group are: Richard A. Thornton, Ollie Corp., vice president; Roger L. Goss, State Water-River High School, treasurer; and Vesalina Lekich, St. Clair CETA (Comprehensive Employment and Training Act) Consortium, secretary.

Emphasize steel shot in waterfowl hunting

A special regulation that would require the use of non-toxic steel shot in 12-gauge shotgun for hunting waterfowl has been proposed by the Upper Mississippi River Refuge. The Wildlife and Fish Refuge has been proposed through the rulemaking process by the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service.

The proposed regulation was published in the Federal Register Dec. 30. The Service announced that public comment on the rulemaking will be accepted until Jan. 31.

The regulation would be required in waterfowl hunting areas along the Upper Mississippi River in the states of Minnesota, Wisconsin, Iowa and Illinois.

In 1977, nontoxic steel shot regulations varied from state to state along the Upper Mississippi. Minnesota and Iowa, however, among other things, were instituting steel shot regulations along state borders.

In 1977, Wisconsin and Illinois state regulations required nontoxic shot in 12-gauge guns used for hunting waterfowl along the Mississippi River.

Minnesota and Iowa, on the other hand, permitted the use of lead shot in all gun types, opting to designate other heavily hunted areas within those two states for steel shot only.

The special regulation for 1978, proposed after consultation with the affected states, would standardize nontoxic steel shot regulations along the Mississippi River.

Data compiled by the Fish and Wildlife Service disclosed heavy use of the refuge in 1975 by both waterfowl and waterfowl hunters, approximately 25 million use days by waterfowl and 413,000 activity hours by waterfowl hunters.

A combination of large waterfowl concentrations and heavy deposition of lead pellets in the refuge area, the refuge can lead to substantial waterfowl losses from lead poisoning, the Service says.

The equity in your house is like money in your pocket.

Equity is the difference between how much your home is worth, and what you owe on it.

It's a valuable asset you can use to back a really big loan. For whatever you have in mind.

Real-estate values are up, up, up.

So the house you bought just a few years ago probably would sell for a lot more than you paid.

Which means your equity is bigger.

And the bigger your equity, the more you can borrow in a large real-estate loan. Right here. Right now.

Maybe the money you're looking for is already in the house.

Theater tour to London by Burns, others

Larry Burns, 1206 Meridian St., Granite City, is participating in the MacMurray College (Jacksonville, Ill.) summer term theater tour to London.

The tour, under the direction of Dr. Eugene Laurent, associate professor of theater arts and founder of the summer theater, will leave Chicago on Monday, June 2.

The 37 tour participants will take up residence in a middle-class neighborhood about 20 minutes from the Central London theater district.

First Lions eye donation

It was 9 p.m. on New Year's eve when the Lions International motto "We Serve" was a true test for the Quad-City Lions Club of Granite City, Madison and Pontoon Beach.

The Lions Foundation Eye Donor Registry Program offered by the local Lions clubs, a set of eyes was transferred from St. Elizabeth Hospital here to the Lions Eye Bank at McMillan Hospital, St. Louis.

A registered Lions' eye donor, age 70, died at St. Elizabeth Hospital at 9 p.m. New year's eve.

The hospital staff at St. Elizabeth notified Lion Deputy District Governor Jim Riskovsky, Madison, and member of the Pontoon Beach Lions Club, and Lion Past President Donald D. Patrick, Sight Conservation Committee chairman of the Pontoon Beach Lions, that a Lions donor had died.

Riskovsky and Patrick contacted Lion Larry Nayler a mortician of Staunton, Ill., to perform the enucleation (removal of eyes). Nayler arrived at St. Elizabeth at 10:45 p.m. and recorded time of the completed eye enucleation was 11:45 p.m.

"We were just stepping out the door of St. Elizabeth Hospital at midnight," Patrick said. "We could hear the horns, shotgun and other noises going off in the background to celebrate the new year."

Riskovsky and Patrick transferred the eyes contained in a specially equipped Lions human eye canister, to the Lions Eye Donor Bank on the seventh floor of McMillan Hospital, St. Louis.

"I've had many memorable New Year's eyes," said Patrick, "but this one will always remember as the most meaningful."

Riskovsky attended Madison public schools. He received her bachelor of science degree in business administration from Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville and recently completed advanced needed counseling services to Madison County residents.

Mrs. Sylvester attended Madison public schools. She received her bachelor of science degree in business administration from Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville and recently completed advanced needed counseling services to Madison County residents.

A member of the Phi Chi Theta professional business fraternity for women, she was awarded its 1977 key award for scholarship, leadership and service.

Cannabis arrest

In a continuing effort to halt marijuana use and sale before school starts, Granite City High School South, Granite City police set up a surveillance operation Wednesday morning which netted one arrest.

Officers reported they were watching students from a distance with field glasses when they saw one youth behind the high school take a small plastic bag from his coat pocket and show it to others.

Officers then stopped the three and put them in a squad car for questioning. One took the bag from under the rear seat of the squad car and gave it to officers.

Lonell Bailey, 17, of 2356 Miracle Ave., was charged with possession of cannabis and the other two were reprimanded and released.

Bailey pleaded innocent to the charge and was released on his own recognizance by Associate Judge Thomas Gibbons at 1:10 p.m. Wednesday.

Trigger prices okay for a trial period—Stinson

George A. Stinson, chairman, National Steel Corporation, said Thursday night he supported somewhat favorably on the Carter Administration's reference pricing plan intended to speed up enforcement of the "anti-dumping" provisions of the 1974 Trade Act.

"Our preliminary analysis of the steel 'trigger prices' announced thus far by the Treasury Department indicates that these prices do not fully reflect the cost of production and delivery of the Japanese steel producers as prescribed in the anti-dumping statutes," Stinson noted.

"Some of the trigger prices are marginally low, but others are well below full Japanese costs."

"We intend to present further information to the Treasury Department which will support these conclusions."

"At the same time, we recognize that there are many complexities in determining the applicable trigger prices."

National Steel is among the steelmakers going to court to seek to enforce existing federal laws that ban unfair world trade.

It has said that it is willing and able to compete with foreign producers elsewhere, but that it objects to below-cost sales subsidized by foreign governments to achieve sales volume and erode the American steel industry.

Past year's transit funding is received

Funds totaling $6,896,620 have been received by the Bi-State Development Agency to provide operating assistance to the agency's 161-route bus system in the metropolitan St. Louis area, Bi-State Executive Director Barry M. Locke said Friday.

"The full impact of the program, as we have stated before, cannot be accurately judged until we have lived with it for a representative trial period," he said.

"We are prepared to continue to support the program, with necessary adjustments, for such a trial exercise."

Negative image of aged will be fought

What can be done to combat the negative image of older persons portrayed on stage and television and in films?

The Gerontology Program of Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville sponsors "Workshops on Aging for Educators in Communications and Media," April 27-28.

The workshops are being sponsored in cooperative with the School of Speech at Northwestern University in Evanston.

The workshops will present concepts of aging to educators and students in the fields of arts and communications, and will teach them to relate this knowledge to their disciplinary programs and areas of interest.

Workshop objectives are to help participants formulate a definition of aging which will recognize the communication abilities and problems of older adults, and their capacity to experience and appreciate the world.

Participants will also be taught to distinguish between myths and realities of aging, and will become familiar with the essential biological, psychological and sociological concepts and principles of aging.

SUVE graduate faculty members in speech communication, mass communication, and theater, dance and psychology—as well as professionals in the field of aging—will provide instruction through discussions, mini-lectures, simulations, films and experiential activities.

The workshop sessions are: Feb. 3 from 8:30 a.m. to 5 p.m., and Feb. 4 from 8:30 a.m. to 12 noon SIU Medical Faculty Building, Springfield.

Feb. 17 from 8:30 a.m. to 5 p.m. and Feb. 18 from 8:30 a.m. to 12 noon, SUVE, second floor conference area, University Center.

March 3 from 8:30 a.m. to 5 p.m. and March 4 from 8:30 a.m. to 12 noon, Northwestern University, Evanston.

Career day for students

Environmental influences on pregnancy, prenatal care, the development of the fetus, the role of the health professional in support of the high-risk family, and genetic and teratogenic effects on the fetus are topics to be discussed at the fourth annual perinatal symposium Wednesday, Jan. 18.

The symposium, sponsored by the St. Louis University Medical Center, will be held in the Margaret McCormick Doisy Learning Resources Center, 3540 Caroline St., Auditorium L1A.

Paul Al Byrne, M.D., associate clinical professor of pediatrics, St. Louis U. School of Medicine, and director, Neonatal Intensive Care Unit, Cardinal Glennon Memorial Hospital for Children, is the conference director.

Representatives from 25 businesses and industries will be on hand to provide career information and job requirements necessary for careers with their organizations, Van Horn said.

Auditions for BAC chorus to be held Tuesday

Auditions for the Belleville Area College Community Chorus will be held at 6:30 to 9:30 p.m. in the BAC Music Room (2350) which is located on the second floor behind the college theater.

The BAC campus is at 2500 Carlyle Street (Highway 161), at Green Mount Road.

During the spring semester, the community chorus will present a concert of favorite choruses from operas, musicals, theater, dance and psychology—as well as professionals in the field of aging—will provide instruction through discussions, mini-lectures, simulations, films and experiential activities.

The workshop sessions are: Feb. 3 from 8:30 a.m. to 5 p.m., and Feb. 4 from 8:30 a.m. to 12 noon SIU Medical Faculty Building, Springfield.

Feb. 17 from 8:30 a.m. to 5 p.m. and Feb. 18 from 8:30 a.m. to 12 noon, SUVE, second floor conference area, University Center.

March 3 from 8:30 a.m. to 5 p.m. and March 4 from 8:30 a.m. to 12 noon, Northwestern University, Evanston.

The Granite City Evening Kiwanis Club learned the workings of a police identification kit at a meeting last week in Charlie's Restaurant.

Detective Kip Pomery of the Granite City Police Department demonstrated the use of the kit which contains several hundred overlays and explained how police are able to produce a composite sketch of a suspect.

With cooperation of witnesses and skilled use of the kit a composite sketch is obtained and distributed to officers and news media, which frequently leads to the arrest of a suspected criminal, according to Pomery.

Jerry Harrington, vice-president of the club, announced there will be a board of directors meeting before the next regular meeting.

A tentative date of Sunday, July 16, has been set for the club's annual boat races.

Representatives from 25 businesses and industries will be on hand to provide career information and job requirements necessary for careers with their organizations, Van Horn said.

New BAC program trains management personnel

"Belleville Area College sets the standards," says Leonard Boyer, director of industrial relations of the Southern Illinois Builders Association concerning the Construction Management Technology curriculum in operation in seven community colleges in the southern part of the state.

Boyer, who is president of BAC, says, "The CMT program has filled a great need for management personnel in the building trades, it is said.

"In the past, we attempted to train in-house, but we failed in the area of background. Our students were not the people we were doing things because we told them that was the way it should be done, not because they understood the reasons for it."

"A good construction manager," Beimfohr maintains, "should have a working knowledge of all areas of the construction industry, although he may be a specialist in one particular area."

Students who have benefited from the CMT program range from the aforementioned ironworker to the wife of a painter contractor who wanted to know enough about his husband's business to help with estimates. They are primarily people from within the industry who want to improve their management and planning skills.

The two-year associate degree program includes courses in blueprint reading, materials and methods, estimating, surveying, personnel management, labor relations, data processing, record keeping, safety, and first line supervision.

Co., Granite City, and a member of the CMT Advisory Committee, feels that the program is taking middle management people and preparing them for top management.

"In the past, we attempted to train in-house, but we failed in the area of background. Our students were not the people we were doing things because we told them that was the way it should be done, not because they understood the reasons for it."

Although the CMT curriculum does include skills in construction such as carpentry or bricklaying, it is frequently the tradesman's ticket up the advancement ladder. According to one student, an ironworker for whom these CMT classes are a way to advance in my trade and maybe go up to a superintendent's job. I want to know the best way to do things and why certain methods of construction are being used."

Baseball, soccer field lights?

By PETE HAYES
Press-Record Sports Editor
Granite City's athletic program may get a boost in the near future ... one that many avid followers have been urging for some time.

The Granite City Board of Education has approved a plan presented to it by the Granite City High School South Boosters Club which, if successful, would result in the erection of lights at the South sports complex, which serves both the Warrior baseball and soccer teams.

One additional fact exists which will please Granite City North.

If the lights are erected, they will become the property of the Board of Education and will be made available to both Granite City schools.

"I wouldn't have had it any other way," said Joe Fedora, athletic director for the district. "I feel that it's better if we have one facility such as this at one school rather than no facilities at all."

"If the soccer or baseball coaches at North want to use the field for night games, the athletic coordinators at each school will have to get together and work out the scheduling, just as they do now for the Memorial Gym for basketball and for the football field."

"THE BUDGET FOR THE PROJECT is to be financed by donations. "There isn't enough money in the budget for the next year to allow for such a project," said Fedora. "So we have to it by taking donations and having group projects."

One of the projects that will be undertaken is a lighting fund kickoff banquet which will be held on March 16 (6 p.m.) in the new Tennis Center in Granite City. The tickets for the banquet are priced at $10 each.

THE ESTIMATED COST for the lights is put at $75,000 by the project committee. Chairman of the committee is James Dumont, the principal at South.

"We think the chances are good that we'll have the lights up by the time soccer season starts in the fall next school year," said Dumont.

"I'm still looking for someone to head up the solicitation committee, though. When we finally get someone, I feel that things will start moving quickly."

MOVING QUICKLY is one thing that the South Boosters don't think can happen to the lighting project back in early fall when they started their first fund-raising project.

When they started thinking about raising money for the lights, the Boosters decided to sell advertising and put it on billboards surrounding the baseball outfield. But several of the residents of Lueders Park Estates, which is directly across Fehling Road from the South sports complex, objected, saying they felt such ads would detract from the beauty of their neighborhood.

The Board of Education agreed and some other means of raising funds had to be found.

According to Fedora, there will be four areas of raising funds: citizen donations, business industry giving, the kickoff banquet and various other promotional donation projects.

The residents of Lueders Park Estates were instrumental during the planning for the new fund-raising attempts and lighting plans. They approve of the new plans.

ONE OF THE MAIN reasons for wanting lights is that in early and late fall, the games have to be pushed ahead in starting times as the days get shorter.

The fact was emphasized during the sectional and subsectional play at both North and South. Important games, such as the North-South game in the subsectional, had to be finished in sub-zero weather almost totally dead lighting conditions.

COLLINSVILLE High School has night soccer games, but they are played on the football field.

According to Fedora, South soccer coach Gene Baker and North soccer coach Bob Kehoe, such use of the football field at Granite City South wouldn't suffice.

"The football field really isn't wide enough," said Baker.

'Battle of the brothers' a dead heat . . .

Devils drop two straight weekend games

By PETE HAYES
Press-Record Sports Editor

On Saturday night, the Red Devils went down to their eighth loss of the season at the hands of Altamont, 76-64.

The host Indians jumped out to a 15-point halftime lead and led by that same number going into the fourth quarter. But then Venice's Ricky Salmond caught fire.

He scored seven straight baskets to help bring his team to within three points with a minute and a half to go in the game.

The Devils ran out of gas. "We just couldn't keep it up," said Venice coach Ken Perkins. "The magic just wore off."

Friday afternoon's contest here was a different type of

You'd think that if a coach's team had just outplayed and outlasted a team that on paper is superior to his, he'd be elated after the game. Right?

Wrong. If you're Ken Perkins of Venice. The reason being that his Red Devils cagers had done what they came to do and yet still managed to lose the arrival Lovejoy of Brooklyn 65-62 Friday. It was Venice's seventh loss in seven starts this season.

"I'm so tired of saying, 'Well, we came real close, but no one scored fire.' We just made too many mistakes in the last two minutes."

The Red Devils had the lead going into the third quarter, 30-22.

"We knew they were a second-half team," said Perkins. "I guess we found out for sure just how much of a second-half team they really are."

The game also marked a homecoming for Ron Salmond. Ron Salmond returned to the school where he had played just last year. He was also playing against his brother, Ricky, who decided to stay at Venice.

The results of the brother-against-brother matchup? A dead-heat.

Ricky had five field goals and three free throws for 13 points and Ron had seven field goals and four free throws for 17 points.

Give a slight edge to Ron in scoring, but his brother beat him on the boards and, according to Perkins, one more according to the official.

"I've got all the admiration in the world for Ricky," said the Venice coach. "He went out there today and gave it all to play. He gave it everything he's got. I'm very proud ... He just played his heart out. He had something to prove."

ONE OTHER THING that was present Friday was that the Devil's fans were a no-show. "They've got an extremely tough team," said Perkins.

"I guess they've got just as good a chance as anybody when it comes to winning that Duop region at the end of the season."

A weak scoring outburst by Lovejoy early in the third period resulted in it taking the lead 37-36 with 4:30 remaining in the quarter on a basket by a girl who was given Salmon.

The visitors led by five, the same amount they had trailed by going into the period — going into the fourth.

With 1:16 left, the Devils, marshaled by the personnel of Ricky Salmond, kept it close. So close, in fact, that they had a chance to tie the score with 1:18 left in the game.

But then a Venice player stepped up to the free throw line, he made the first but stepped over the line in making the second. That was as close as Venice was to get.

The Devil's fans put away by Ron Salmond when he had two free throws with only 10 seconds left to lift Lovejoy to the win.

Bishops to visit Venice

The bishops of the Roman Catholic Church will visit St. Mark Catholic Parish in Venice on Sunday, Jan. 15, to celebrate the 100th anniversary of the Beatification of St. Arnold Janssen of the Society of the Divine Word (SVD).

The program will begin with mass celebrated at noon by Bishop Joseph A. McNicholas of the Springfield Diocese and Bishop Joseph Francis, SVD, the first black appointed to the post of president of Major Superiors of Men in America and currently the auxiliary bishop of the Archdiocese of Newark, N.J.

Immediately following the mass, there will be a reception, including a light lunch, in the basement of the church. Parishioners and the public are invited.

The Society of the Divine Word was founded in 1875 by the German diocesan priest Father Arnold Janssen in Stegl, Holland. It was founded primarily as a missionary order to spread the message of Christ in China.

In 1829, other SVD missionaries came to the United States.

In 1889, Father Janssen founded the Congregation of Missionary Sisters, Servants of the Holy Spirit of Perpetual Adoration, of their own race.

The Society of the Divine Word came on June 19 to St. Mark and the community of Venice through Rev. E.G. Gehlen, who was ordained Aug. 15, 1944.

St. Mark's in 1971 celebrated its 100th anniversary as a recognized parish.

St. Mark, as was the Society of Divine Word, was founded and developed by German priests.

Father Peter Kaenders, born in Velen, Germany, was appointed the first full time pastor at St. Mark in 1889 and served in that capacity for 41 years.

NONE SOLD TO DEALERS OR WHOLESALERS.Stress and Health topic of GC Unit

The Granite City Unit of Homemakers Extension Association heard a major lesson on "Stress and Health" and a minor lesson on "Safety Tips on Driving," at the January meeting which convened at the Nameoki United Presbyterian Church.

Mr. Alvin Miller, first vice-chairman, introduced the major lesson which was given by Mrs. Freddy McElroy. She gave various examples of stress both mentally and physically, noting stress can set up tension and concluded her talk with the statement that deadlines and time are the greatest causes of stress. Mrs. McElroy provided a test for each one in relation to stress in their lives.

The health lesson was read by Mrs. Anna Pare on safety tips on driving in rain, fog and snow. Included in her speech was the note that everyone should have an emergency kit in their car and a person should never make quick decisions while the accelerator is in use and to drive carefully while going through water.

Mrs. Helen Oberlin, chairman, opened the noon meeting and introduced a new member, Mrs. Dal Tutka and a guest, Mrs. Louise Johnson.

Refreshments of cake and coffee were served by Mrs. Martha Taylor and Mrs. Helen Parks.

The business agenda also included the secretary's report for October and December by Mrs. LaNell Lessing and the treasurer's report by Mrs. McElroy.

Mrs. Laura Travis and Mrs. Josephine Uram will represent the unit at a tailoring class in the Edwardsville office on Feb.

Circle learns use of pledges

Mrs. Lucy Weaver presented a lesson from Response magazine, entitled "Responsibly Yours," to Therese Hoover, a member of the Truth Circle, held Thursday in the Youth Center at Niedringhaus United Methodist Church.

Mrs. Shirley Lane, leader, presided and special prayers were offered for members who were ill.

In the lesson, Mrs. Weaver explained how pledges from women of The Methodist Church can be used with a total of $63 of each dollar donated going directly to missionary project.

It also was indicated in the meeting that the Methodist Women's organization is the oldest group of its type in the United States, the speaker said.

"From Illiterate Woman to Certified Nurse in Five Years" was the title of an article, also read by Mrs. Weaver.

Faith Circle opens new year

The first meeting of the new year of Faith Circle of Niedringhaus United Methodist Church was held Jan. 7. Mrs. Alice Cruse and Mrs. Mary Ahlers in the youth center Thursday at 1 p.m.

Mrs. Eula Myers opened the meeting with prayer, after which the group sang the theme song, "Faith, Hope and Charity." Mrs. Cruse conducted the business session and reported that a lay retreat will be held Jan. 27 in East St. Louis.

Among those attending were Mrs. Eula Myers, Mrs. Pauline Cox, Dorothy Fredrich, Maxine Hacke, Fern Hahn, Susie Kniffen, Grace Paddock, Ruth Purkey, Gladys Wallace, Betty Williams, Nannie Meadows and others named.

Besides those mentioned, present were Woody Lynn, Jerry Thompson, Reba Wallace, Mary Louise Niepert, Ella Ray Smith and Oiga Tierney.

New lines, extensions mark 1977 Bi-State improvements

Twenty-one new bus routes, frequency increases on existing routes, newly-traveled and extensions of more than two dozen other lines highlighted the Bi-State Development Agency's transit improvements in 1977, according to Executive Director Harry C. Cooke.

The service changes, Cooke noted, were concentrated on continuing to meet the transportation needs of transit-dependent residents in the city of St. Louis, as well as extending transit opportunities for the first time to several areas of St. Louis County, as well as Illinois.

North St. Louisans are now served by the new Donnell-Lackland local and express service to the Westport area of St. Louis County, with two-way express morning and evening commuter trips between the Paragon Shopping Center and downtown St. Louis. Route was inaugurated in 1977 along Parker Road, while the new Spanish Lake-Hazelwood Express bus line now offers rush-hour service to and from McDonnell Douglas.

North-city transit improvements also included the extensions of the St. Louis Area Transit Authority's St. Louis seven days a week, the operation of all Union buses direct to the medical complex on Kingshighway by Forest Park, and a completely new Drive-Hazelwood Express, which now originates at Natural Bridge & Parnell and terminates at Brown Campus. Wellston buses serve the new DePaul Medical Center, Midway, through Saturday and operate to Northwest Plaza every day.

South St. Louis now is served by direct downtown service on the extended Lafayette line, which has also been lengthened to reach the intersection of Lucas Hunt line to the Kingsland Loop in University City.

St. Louis residents are now offered weekday commuter service to the industrial complex in Hazelwood, Mo., via the new Granite City-Hazelwood Express, which recently was appointed by Mayor Paul Schuler last week to spearhead a move to redistrict the city precincts.

The mayor named Alderman Ronald Coleman, Ward Seven, as chairman, and Earl Baker, Ward Six, and Lloyd Boyd, Ward Five, as members.

Other St. Louis County improvements have included the Lucas Hunt line to the Kingsland Loop in University City.

St. Louis residents are now offered weekday commuter service to the industrial complex in Hazelwood, Mo., via the new Granite City-Hazelwood Express, which recently was appointed by Mayor Paul Schuler last week to spearhead a move to redistrict the city precincts.

The frequency of bus service was also increased on several lines in 1977, including the Olive, Delmar-Forsyth, Hampstead-Case-Oakwood, Lee Kingshighway, Grand, Cross County, and Tower Grove routes, and Sunday service was inaugurated on the St. Louis Avenue line.

St. Louis' special services operated by St. Louis included, for the first time, direct express bus lines to Six Flags Over Mid-America originating in north St. Louis and in south St. Louis, while thousands of passengers used the Bus Lines' "Orbit" Red Bird and Big Red Express lines, as well as extended regular-line trips.

The St. Louis shuttle offered area residents a unique glimpse of the area's top tourist attractions, while a long transit association with the Municipal Opera was continued with special bus service to all performances. Race Track Expressions, from downtown St. Louis to the two Illinois tracks, continues on a year-round basis.

Further information concerning Bi-State transit services may be obtained by calling 773-1120 in Missouri; or toll-free from Illinois: 254-0623 in Alton-Wood River; 233-3700 in Belleville; 875-4144 in East St. Louis-Granite City; and Enterprise 2639 in Edwardsville.

Gordon boy feeling better

Lonnie Gordon, 2 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Gordon, who suffered intense smoke inhalation in a fire Thursday at 202 Grand Ave., died in the Intensive Care Unit at Cardinal Glennon Children's Hospital, St. Louis, today but is feeling much better, according to his mother.

Mrs. Gordon said her son developed pneumonia, but has regained the use of his chest and is eating "quite happily." Tubes to the lungs will be removed later today, she added.

Ginger Lou Sanders, 2, daughter of Mike and Barbara Sanders, also of 202 Grand Ave., was discharged from Cardinal Glennon on Saturday.

Firemen rescued both children from the four-flat apartment building during the 6 a.m. fire Thursday.

Authorities have determined the fire was caused by a faulty electric space heater in a bathroom and not by water dripping onto the heater as originally believed.

CB radios stolen

Three citizen band radios were stolen from three different pickup trucks in Pontoon Beach, all parked at the various owners' homes.

Dean Rochester, 27 Westgate Drive, reported at 7 a.m. Saturday that a 23-channel Midland CB valued at $100 was stolen.

Between 8 p.m. Saturday and 9 a.m. Sunday, a CB radio was stolen from John Turner of Iris Ave.

At 8 a.m. today, Harry Ellsworth, 4201 Bruene Ave., reported a Pace 23 channel with weather crystal, valued at $150 was taken.

Theft from register

An undetermined amount of cash was stolen from the cash register at the Jetflight Fina, Nameoki and Dennis Roads, about 4 p.m. Sunday. Sunday Preliminary indications are the amount taken was small, possibly less than $5. A teen-age girl dressed in a green auto was the only one who was seen going into the office before the theft was discovered, police were told.

Storage sheds entered, looted

Two storage sheds facing opposite banks of the Nameoki Drainage Ditch between the 2200 blocks of Dahl and Sunset avenues were broken into and items removed, it was learned.

Don Krause, 2925 Dale Ave., discovered a padlock had been broken from his utility shed door and hand and power tools, a pressure canner, a portable radio, a camping stove, a chain saw and a battery charger had been taken.

He reported finding two of his tools and a camping lantern which did not belong to him in the drainage ditch near his home.

Police searched the area and found the shed at the home of James Kramer, 2914 Sunset Ave., had been broken into after glass in the shed door was broken.

Taken were the camping lantern, a chain saw and a tool box containing tools weighing about 80 pounds. He estimated the total value at $400.

Police found at least two separate sets of footprints around Krause's shed, indicating more than one person was involved in the thefts.

CONSERVE energy IT'S OUR BEST BET

Saving energy helps us all to control rising costs — and in our case, to help hold down food prices. Energy conservation is a year-round, companywide priority at Kroger.

Among the steps Kroger has taken to save energy are recycling of heat generated by refrigeration equipment to provide heating and hot water for the store; these heat reclaim systems are now in 70% of Kroger Food Stores... more energy-efficient lighting... elimination of unnecessary lighting... reduction of wasted power through better equipment maintenance and equipment modifications... improved building insulation... and more direct methods like turning out lights and turning down store thermostats.

KEEPING YOU POSTED

Thanks to efforts such as these, an "energy-managed" supermarket such as Kroger uses little more energy when open than closed. For example, the largest use of energy in a supermarket is for refrigeration equipment, which must stay on 24 hours a day to protect food. Some store lights are needed for safety, security and shelf stocking. Parking lot lights and checkout equipment account for less than 1% of total energy requirements. Significant energy savings have been realized through the heat reclaim systems, which save approximately 500,000 kilowatt hours of electricity or two million cubic feet of gas on an annual basis in a typical supermarket.

Kroger will continue to search for innovative ways to save energy while we try to serve you — our customers — efficiently and well.
